2010 FINALIST

FEED NOVA SCOTIA was honoured to have been recently nominated and short-listed for a Maritime Business Ethics Award in the Non Profit category. We would like to congratulate this year's winner, L'Arche Cape Breton. We are proud to be recognized alongside L'Arche and Homebridge Youth Society, two organizations whose meaningful work contributes so much to the community.

The Maritime Business Ethics Awards are presented by Better Business Bureau of the Maritime Provinces Inc. Nominees in the Non Profit category must meet at least the first four criteria of the following list:

1. Have a sustained record of providing exceptional service in the community.
2. Be operating for at least two years.
3. Be a leader in providing ethical guidance in the community or have a presence of ethical leadership in the Maritime provinces.
4. Be recognized for enhancing public awareness of social/ecological responsibility or serving as respected advocate.
5. Have faced a recent ethical dilemma and shown integrity and ethical leadership in dealing with that particular challenge.

We would like to thank Roger Tymchuk and Melanie Dunsmore for nominating FEED NOVA SCOTIA, and also the judges who chose us to be a finalist.
