“Take a Bite Out of Hunger”

Hunger hides in plain sight around us
While some of us live down in the dark
In a marine analogy- hunger would be a shiny boat
While we would be the unfeeling shark
But it's time to wake the beast within us
Excite an instinct a million years strong
We can't ignore our hungry brethren
Because way down deep we know it's wrong
It's time to attack this arrogant problem
It's time to unleash the blood and fight
So get the scent and circle slowly
There lies hunger- let's take a bite!
