

$200 HUMBERTO CANALE DENARIO

~ 2013 HUMBERTO CANALE DENARIO SAUVIGNON BLANC

This wine shows a pale yellow hue, with greenish reflections. The bouquet shows off all the varietal characteristics: citrus at the start and then nuances of pineapple, mango and passion fruit. It is dry, sweet and round in the mouth, with balanced acidity and a long finish. Perfect with steamed and grilled fish, salads and seafood.

~ 2012 HUMBERTO CANALE DENARIO MALBEC

This is a wine with complex structure, and surprising notes of redberries, eucalyptus, spice, and black pepper. After a year in the bottle it becomes more intense and concentrated in character. It is the ultimate wine to pair with Argentina's emblematic "asado" (barbeque). It also shows off its style paired with all types of pastas and dishes with rich sauces.

$300 MURPHY-GOODE

~ 2011 CALIFORNIA CHARDONNAY

This wine opens with aromas and flavours of apple, pear and tropical fruits. Streaks of lemon creme with hints of vanilla entice another sip. It is richly textured, while retaining a balance of integrated fruit and toasty oak. Bacon-wrapped scallops with a glass of Chardonnay is always a winning combo.

~ 2010 CABERNET SAUVIGNON

The 2010 Cabernet Sauvignon is a wonderful expression of the many appellations from which it is derived. Aromas and flavours of blackberry and cherry with hints of thyme are expressed. Merlot was folded into the blend to add depth and complexity. A perfect accompaniment with barbecued meats and roasted vegetables.
